

Dear Mr. Covaciu,

You intend to engage the services of our law firm in connection with one or more legal transactions, as specified below under B). In this context, we are required in accordance with the regulations on the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing to collect certain data and carry out certain checks in each individual case, even in those instances where there is no suspicion at all that criminal offences of such a nature are being or have been committed.

Therefore please complete this form truthfully and sign it to confirm the accuracy of the information you provide. Mr. Bogdan Capra (email: bogdan.capra@cerhahempel.com) will be pleased to assist you in the event that you have any questions regarding how to complete the form.

In addition to the completed form, please provide a copy of your official photo ID (passport, driving licence, identity card).

If it is not your intention to carry out the transaction for your own account but instead as a trustee for a third party, please inform us immediately so we can send you another form of this questionnaire.

<sup>1</sup> "Politically exposed persons" are those natural persons who are or have been entrusted with prominent public functions and immediate family members, or persons known to be close associates, of such persons (Article 3(8) of Directive 2005/60/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 October 2005).

Politically exposed persons are natural persons who are or have been entrusted with prominent public functions; this includes in particular (Section 8f of the Act on Attorneys):

1. heads of State, heads of government, ministers and deputy or assistant ministers; in Austria, this applies in particular to the Federal President, the Federal Chancellor and members of the federal government and the governments of the Länder;
2. members of parliament or members of comparable legislative bodies; in Austria, this applies in particular to the members of the National Council and the Federal Council;
3. members of the leading bodies of political parties; in Austria, this applies in particular to members of the leading bodies of political parties represented in the National Council;
4. members of supreme courts, of constitutional courts or of other high-level judicial bodies whose decisions are not subject to further appeal, except in exceptional circumstances; in Austria, this applies in particular to judges of the Constitutional Court, the Administrative Court and the Supreme Court;
5. members of courts of auditors or of the boards of central banks; in Austria, this applies in particular to the President of the Court of Auditors as well as the directors of the provincial courts of auditors and members of the Governing Board of the Oesterreichische Nationalbank;
6. ambassadors, chargés d'affaires and high-ranking officers in the armed forces; in Austria, high-ranking officers in the armed forces include in particular military persons of the rank of lieutenant general or higher;
7. members of the administrative, management or supervisory bodies of State-owned enterprises; in Austria, this applies in particular to enterprises in which the federal government or a federal state (Bundesland) holds at least 50% of the nominal capital, share capital or equity capital or which the federal government or a federal state operates alone or which the federal government or a federal state actually controls by financial or other economic or real measures;
8. directors, deputy directors and members of the management body or a comparable function at an international organisation.

None of the categories set out in points 1 to 8 above is to be understood as covering middle ranking or more junior officials.

Family members of politically exposed persons include in particular:

1. the spouse of a politically exposed person, a person considered as equivalent to the spouse of a politically exposed person or his/her partner within the meaning of Section 72 para. 2 of the Criminal Code;

2. the children (including adopted and foster children) of a politically exposed person and their spouses, persons considered as equivalent to spouses or partners within the meaning of Section 72 para. 2 of the Criminal Code;
  3. the parents of a politically exposed person.

Persons known to be close associates of politically exposed persons include:

1. any natural person who is known to have joint beneficial ownership of legal entities or a comparable legal arrangement with a politically exposed person or who has any other close business relations with a politically exposed person, or
2. any natural person who has sole beneficial ownership of a legal entity or a comparable legal arrangement which is known to have been set up for the benefit de facto of a politically exposed person.
